If you have questions regarding qualifications for an offer in compromise, please call our toll-free number at 1-800-829-1040. You can get forms and publications by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676), by visiting your local IRS office, or at www.irs.gov.

Taxpayer resources

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service that helps taxpayers and protects taxpayer rights. TAS helps taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties, who've tried but haven't been able to resolve their problems with the IRS, or believe an IRS system or procedure isn't working as it should. And the service is free. Your local advocate's number is in your local directory and at www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov. You can also call TAS at 1-877-777-4778. For more information about TAS and your rights under the Taxpayer Bill of Rights, go to www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov. The Taxpayer Advocate is your voice at the IRS.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. LITCs serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem with the IRS. LITCs provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. For more information and to find an LTC near you, see the LTC page at www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/litcmap or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This Publication is also available online at www.irs.gov or by calling the IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-3676.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 656-L, OFFER IN COMPROMISE (DOUBT AS TO LIABILITY)

What you need to know

Your Rights as a Taxpayer

Each and every taxpayer has a set of fundamental rights they should be aware of when dealing with the IRS. Explore your rights and our obligations to protect them. For more information on your rights as a taxpayer, <http://www.irs.gov/Taxpayer-Bill-of-Rights>.

What is a Doubt as to Liability offer?

Doubt as to liability exists where there is a genuine dispute as to the existence or amount of the correct tax debt under the law. If you have a legitimate doubt that you owe part or all of the tax debt, you will need to complete a Form 656-L, Offer in Compromise (Doubt as to Liability).

Doubt as to liability cannot be disputed or considered if the tax debt has been established by a final court decision or judgment concerning the existence or amount of the assessed tax debt or if the assessed tax debt is based on current law.

Submitting an offer application does not guarantee that the IRS will accept your offer. It begins a process of evaluation and verification by the IRS.

If you have supplied information to the Internal Revenue Service or are responding to a notice you received relating to the same matter for which you are submitting your offer, you should resolve the outstanding issues prior to filing the offer. If your issue is being worked by another area, for example you have requested audit reconsideration to resolve whether you are liable for the tax, then an offer should not be filed until the issue is resolved. Failure to follow-up and resolve an issue may lead to the IRS returning the offer without further consideration.

A doubt as to liability offer will only be considered for the tax period(s) in question.

Note: If you agree that you owe the tax but cannot afford to pay, DO NOT FILE a Form 656-L. See below "What if I agree with the tax debt but cannot afford to pay in full?", for additional information.

If you file the wrong type of offer, your offer will be returned without further consideration.

What documentation or support is needed?

You must provide a written statement explaining why the tax debt or portion of the tax debt is incorrect. In addition, you should provide supporting documentation or evidence that will help the IRS identify the reason(s) you doubt the accuracy of the tax debt. If you are unable to reconstruct your books and records, you can provide an explanation that supports reasonable doubt justifying a reduction to a portion or all of your tax debt.

Note: Failing to provide a written statement explaining why the tax debt or a portion of the debt is incorrect will cause your offer to be returned without further consideration.

How much should I offer?

In order to qualify, you must make an offer that is $1 or more and should be based on what you believe the correct amount of tax should be. If you believe you do not owe any tax, you should pursue alternative solutions listed below. See "What alternatives do I have to sending in an Offer in Compromise (Doubt as to Liability)?", for additional information.

Note: Do not include any payment(s) with the Form 656-L. No deposit or application fee is required for a doubt as to liability offer.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

What alternatives do I have to sending in an Offer in Compromise (Doubt as to Liability)?

When you disagree with the accuracy of a tax debt, depending on the situation and the type of tax, the IRS has other available remedies. If your tax debt is other than a Trust Fund Recovery Penalty (TFRP) or Personal Liability Excise Tax (PLET), you should pursue the options below first before submitting an offer.

Note: If you wish to obtain any of the tax products listed below, visit www.irs.gov/forms-pubs, or call (800) 829-3676.

If you think your tax liability is incorrect because:	Then:
of an audit	see Publication 3598 , The Audit Reconsideration Process
IRS created a tax return for you because you did not file one	submit your correct signed, original tax return for processing to the appropriate processing center items were not reported correctly on your Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return or 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return or because IRS made an adjustment on your return	see the instructions for Form 1040X , Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return or Form 1120-X , Amended U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return which ever form is applicable items were not reported properly on a tax return, other than Forms 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return or 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return , or because IRS made an adjustment on your return	see the instructions for Form 843 , Claim for Refund and Request for Abatement
you have reasonable cause to remove or reduce penalties IRS charged	see Notice 746 , Information About Your Notice, Penalty and Interest
you believe additional interest IRS charged you was due to IRS errors or delays	see the instructions for Form 843 , Claim For Refund and Request for Abatement
you believe you were not a responsible person of the business and have been assessed the trust fund portion of employment taxes or personal liability excise tax affiliated with a business reported on Form 720, Quarterly Federal Excise Tax Return	you have the option to file Form 656-L or see the instructions for Form 843 , Claim For Refund and Request for Abatement
you believe you should be considered an "innocent spouse" for a joint income tax return	see Publication 971 , Innocent Spouse Relief
you believe you should be considered an "injured spouse" for a joint income tax return	See Form 8379 , Injured Spouse Allocation Note: A claim for injured spouse will not be considered under doubt as to liability.
you dispute your worker classification	See Form SS-8 , Worker Classification Determination Note: An SS-8 dispute will not be considered under doubt as to liability.

Examples of when you should submit a Doubt as to Liability Offer

You should only submit a doubt as to liability offer if you are unable to dispute the amount of tax the IRS claims you owe during the time allowed by the Internal Revenue Code or IRS guidelines.

Possible reasons for submitting a doubt as to liability offer in compromise include the following: the examiner made a mistake interpreting the tax law; the examiner failed to consider the evidence presented; new evidence is available to support a change to the assessment. Below are some examples of when it may be appropriate to submit an offer based on doubt as to liability.

Example 1: You were audited by the IRS. When this happened, you moved and did not get the notification, or you suffered a disaster (such as books and records were destroyed in a fire or other natural disaster) causing you to miss the meeting with the auditor. The IRS disallowed all expenses and now you have a tax debt. You discover the problem when you try to borrow some money and find that there is a federal tax lien filed. You are unable to reconstruct your books and records, but you can provide an explanation that supports reasonable doubt justifying a reduction to a portion or all of your tax debt.

Example 2: You filed your tax return reporting stock options as valued by your employer, which created a large tax liability including Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT). You paid part of the tax debt, but could not pay the full amount owed. You later discovered that the stocks were not worth as much as you originally reported. This was due to fraudulent acts by the broker and/or your employer. You filed a claim for a refund based on the reduced value of stock options. IRS told you that the full amount of the tax debt had to be paid before they could consider your claim and denied your claim for refund.

What if I agree with the tax debt but cannot afford to pay in full?

A doubt as to collectibility offer, is when you agree that you owe the taxes but you cannot pay your tax debt in full. To be considered for a doubt as to collectibility offer you must make an appropriate offer based on what the IRS considers your true ability to pay. To request consideration under doubt as to collectibility, do not use this form. You must complete a Form 656, Offer in Compromise, found in Form 656-B, Offer in Compromise Booklet. You may get a Form 656-B by calling the toll free number 1-800-829-1040, by visiting a local IRS office, or at www.irs.gov. For additional assistance, use the online Offer In Compromise Pre-Qualifier tool at http://irs.treasury.gov/oic_pre_qualifier/.

IMPORTANT NOTE

You cannot submit an offer based on doubt as to liability (Form 656-L) and a separate offer based on doubt as to collectibility (Form 656) at the same time.

It is in your best interest to resolve any disagreements about the validity of the tax debt before filing an offer based on doubt as to collectibility. If you send both kinds of offers at the same time, the doubt as to collectability offer will be returned without further consideration. However, when the IRS returns the doubt as to collectability offer to you, it will not return the application fee or any payment you made with the offer, but will apply any payment to your liability.

Section 3Amount of the Offer

I offer to pay $ _____

Must be $1 or more and payable within 90 days of the notification of acceptance, unless an alternative payment term is approved at the time the offer is accepted. Do not send any payment with this form. If you do not offer at least $1, your offer will be returned without consideration.

Section 4Terms

By submitting this offer, I have read, understand and agree to the following terms and conditions:

Terms, Conditions, and Legal Agreement

a) The IRS will apply payments made under the terms of this offer in the best interest of the government.

IRS will keep my payments and fees

b) I voluntarily submit all payments made on this offer.

c) The IRS will keep all payments and credits made, received, or applied to the total original tax debt before I send in the offer or while it is under consideration, including any refunds from tax returns and/or credits from tax years prior to the year in which the offer was accepted.

d) The IRS may levy under section 6331(a) up to the time that the IRS official signs and acknowledges my offer as pending, which is accepted for processing, and the IRS may keep any proceeds arising from such a levy.

e) If the Doubt as to Liability offer determines that I do not owe the taxes, or the IRS ultimately over-collected the compromised tax liability, the IRS will return the over-collected amount to me, unless such refund is legally prohibited by statute.

f) If the IRS served a continuous levy on wages, salary, or certain federal payments under sections 6331(e) or (h), then the IRS could choose to either retain or release the levy. No levy may be made during the time an offer in compromise is pending.

I agree to the time extensions allowed by law

g) To have my offer considered, I agree to the extension of time limit provided by law to assess my tax debt (statutory period of assessment). I agree that the date by which the IRS must assess my tax debt will now be the date by which my debt must currently be assessed plus the period of time my offer is pending plus one additional year if the IRS rejects, returns, or terminates my offer, or I withdraw it. [Paragraph (m) of this section defines pending and withdrawal]. I understand I have the right not to waive the statutory period of assessment or to limit the waiver to a certain length or certain periods or issues. I understand, however, the IRS may not consider my offer if I decline to waive the statutory period of assessment or if I provide only a limited waiver. I also understand the statutory period for collecting my tax debt will be suspended during the time my offer is pending with the IRS, for 30 days after any rejection of my offer by the IRS, and during the time any rejection of my offer is being considered by the Appeals Office.

I understand I remain responsible for the full amount of the tax liability

h) The IRS cannot collect more than the full amount of the tax debt under this offer.

i) I understand I remain responsible for the full amount of the tax debt, unless and until the IRS partially or fully abates the tax, or accepts the offer in writing and I have met all the terms and conditions of the offer. The IRS will not remove the original amount of the tax debt from its records until I have met all the terms of the offer.

j) I understand the tax I offer to compromise is and will remain a tax debt until I meet all the terms and conditions of this offer. If I file bankruptcy before the terms and conditions of this offer are completed, any claim the IRS files in bankruptcy proceedings will be a tax claim.

k) Once the IRS accepts the offer in writing, I have no right to contest, in court or otherwise, the amount of the tax debt.

Pending status of an offer and right to appeal

l) The offer is pending starting with the date an authorized IRS official signs this form. The offer remains pending until an authorized IRS official accepts, rejects, returns, or acknowledges withdrawal of the offer in writing. If I appeal an IRS rejection decision on the offer, the IRS will continue to treat the offer as pending until the Appeals Office accepts or rejects the offer in writing. If an offer is rejected, no levy may be made during the 30 days of rejection. If I do not file a protest within 30 days of the date the IRS notifies me of the right to protest the decision, I waive the right to a hearing before the Appeals Office about the offer.

I understand if IRS fails to make a decision in 24-months my offer will be accepted

m) I understand under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) § 7122(f), my offer will be accepted, by law, unless IRS notifies me otherwise, in writing, within 24 months of the date my offer was initially received.

I understand what will happen if I fail to meet the terms of my offer (e.g. default)

n) If I fail to meet any of the terms of this offer, the IRS may levy or sue me to collect any amount ranging from the unpaid balance of the offer to the original amount of the tax debt (less payments made) plus penalties and interest that have accrued from the time the underlying tax liability arose. The IRS will continue to add interest, as required by Section § 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code, on the amount of the IRS determines is due after default.

I understand the IRS may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien on my/our property

o) The IRS may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien to protect the Government's interest during the offer investigation. The tax lien will be released 30 days after the payment terms have been satisfied and the payment has been verified. If the offer is accepted, the tax lien will be released within 30 days of when the payment terms have been satisfied and the payment has been verified. The time it takes to verify the payment varies based on the form of payment.

I authorize the IRS to contact relevant third parties in order to process my/our offer

p) I understand that IRS employees may contact third parties in order to respond to this request, and I authorize the IRS to make such contacts. Further, in connection with this request, by authorizing the IRS to contact third parties, I understand that I will not receive notice of third parties contacted as is otherwise required by IRC § 7602(c).

Section 5 Explanation of Circumstances

THIS SECTION MUST BE COMPLETED.

Explain why you believe the tax is incorrect. Reminder: if your explanation indicates you cannot afford to pay, do not file a Form 656-L. Refer to page 4 "What if I agree with the tax debt but cannot afford to pay in full?", for additional information. Note: You may attach additional sheets if necessary. Please include your name and SSN and/or EIN on all additional sheets or supporting documentation.

Multiple horizontal lines for providing an explanation of circumstances.

Section 6 Signature(s)

Privacy Act Statement

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the internal revenue laws of the United States. Our authority to request this information is contained in Section 7801 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our purpose for requesting the information is to determine if it is in the best interests of the IRS to accept an offer. You are not required to make an offer; however, if you choose to do so, you must provide all of the information requested. Failure to provide all of the information may prevent us from processing your request.

If you are a paid preparer and you prepared the Form 656-L for the taxpayer submitting an offer, we request that you complete and sign Section 8 on the Form 656-L, and provide identifying information. Providing this information is voluntary. This information will be used to administer and enforce the internal revenue laws of the United States and may be used to regulate practice before the Internal Revenue Service for those persons subject to Treasury Department Circular No. 230, Regulations Governing the Practice of Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, Enrolled Agents, Enrolled Actuaries, and Appraisers before the Internal Revenue Service. Information on this form may be disclosed to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation.

We may also disclose this information to cities, states and the District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws and to combat terrorism. Providing false or fraudulent information on this form may subject you to criminal prosecution and penalties.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Did you include supporting documentation and an explanation as to why you doubt you owe the tax?
- Did you complete all fields on the Form 656-L?
- Did you make an offer amount that is $1 or more?

Note: The amount of your offer should be based on what you believe the correct amount of the tax debt should be. However, you must offer at least $1. If you do not want to offer $1 or more, you should pursue the alternative solutions provided under "What alternatives do I have to sending in an Offer in Compromise (Doubt as to Liability)?" found on page 3.

- If someone other than you completed the Form 656-L, did that person sign it?
- Did you sign and include the Form 656-L?
- If you want a third party to represent you during the offer process, did you include a Form 2848 or Form 8821 unless one is already on file?

Note: There is no application fee or deposit required for a Doubt as to Liability offer. Do not send any payments with this offer.
